

The Royal Oak PALEY STREET

Nick's Monthly Round-Up

April was a great month for nominations, awards and reviews for the Royal Oak.

Our Sommelier, Michael Trenga has been shortlisted from 2000 entries for the AA Wine List of the Year Award. This also means that we now have a notable wine list recognition attached to our entry. The awards ceremony takes place in September, so fingers crossed.

Michael has organised another 'Wine Makers Dinner' on Monday 22nd June. This will be a 3 course dinner with accompanying wines selected by Michael. The price is £59 per person. The menu and wines can be seen on our website, so please come along and support Michael in recognition of his efforts.

Dom has been shortlisted amongst the last 3 chefs for the Craft Guild of Chefs Award for Best Pub Chef. This is an industry award which once again has shown Dom and his team as being truly exceptional. The awards are at the Hilton Hotel on June 1st; I am sure you will all wish him good luck.

Dom will also be appearing on TV on the 14th May on BBC 2 at 9.00pm. The programme is called 'Keep It In The Family'. It's about Dom's father owning the family business and the dilemmas involved in deciding who to pass the business onto. So it will give some insight into Dom's direction within the industry and where he sees his future.

Our last piece of April news is that we were reviewed by Terry Durack in the Independent on Sunday. The review was excellent and made me so proud of Dom, Mo, Michael and all the team at the Oak. Click here to take a look at the review.
