The Royal Oak

PALEY STREET

Nick's Monthly Round-Up

It is with great pleasure that I would like to announce the unveiling of our new website www.theroyaloakpaleystreet.com.

Many thanks to Adam and the team at Redder for all their hard work. The website will continually evolve, all comments and feedback are always very welcome.

June was a busy month with many people taking advantage of the Alfresco dining area, we also had a couple of big functions including our first wedding reception this year.

Our Wine Makers Dinner on 22nd June was a huge success, but as summer holidays are now upon us we won't be running another one until September.

You may have seen our recent mention in the Mail on Sunday covering a very special guest holding a private function at The Oak. Just to clarify, Ben Elton is not on my pay role and was only showing other guests his silver service skills!

Whilst on the topic of recent national press coverage, Michael Winner also gave us a mention and raved on about our chips. This is the third time he has remarked upon Dominic's skill in chipping potatoes. So hopefully this will secure our slot in Winners Dinners Awards which will be published in September.

We have been voted Number 5 in Eat Out Magazine's Top 100 Pubs Review and 26th in Square Meals' Summer Magazine, Top 50 Restaurants. Many thanks to everyone who voted for us, your support is very much appreciated.

Music Nights

I am pleased to announce my new wine list which increases the choice of wines to 280 different bottles. New countries featured on the list include Greece, Germany, Morocco and Hungary. I have also managed to convince Nick to buy some high end Bordeaux which include Château Cheval Blanc and Château Pétrus!

In the next newsletter I will be offering advice on the wines from these new regions.
